Dear Mr. Ballard:

Please excuse this form, however I am required to communicate with you in this manner because of the attached letter from your boss and colleague. My understanding from this communication is that I can only communicate with your office in writing. While I believe this to be unfortunate, I sure would not want to disobey a direct order from your boss or the esteemed Ronald L. Barclay, Assistant Criminal District Attorney.

May I look at the file involving the State of Texas vs. _____.

Would you make a recommendation in this file? Circle one. Yes or No

What would that recommendation be? _____

Would you consider reducing this charge to _____?

For the following reasons

Would you oppose a reset? Circle one. Yes or No

Would you like to approach the bench? Circle one. Yes or No

✓ Other: I have received your phone call - but can't call you back because of your boss' directive.
If you would like to fax a message, I will try to respond "in writing," as best I can.
As you know, I am ignorant in the law, after all.

Dutifully and Obediently Yours,

Lloyd D. Stansberry
